

Aidan Andrews is a Studio Arts major at HCCC. Aidan enjoys working with various media, ranging from ink and watercolor to digital media. He hopes to combine his interests in art, film, and music.

Jasmine Arriaza is a Studio Arts major at HCCC. Her mixed media work explores environmental and women's issues. After graduation, Jasmine plans to pursue her education at a 4year art school and build a community of like-minded artists.

Josh Beltran is a Studio Art major. Based in New Jersey, Josh enjoys working in traditional art media, particularly drawing in charcoal. His work mainly focuses on portraiture and illustration. Josh is inspired to make beauty out of chaos to combine originality with music and fine arts.

Alyssa Burgos is a Computer Arts major. Initially, Alyssa became interested in art due to her love of anime. This interest developed into her passion for creating her animations. Alyssa plans to pursue animation at a four-year institution and eventually work as an animator.

Nimsi Carrillo is a student in the Computer Arts program at HCCC. Nimsi is a multi-media artist and incorporates craft traditions with her digital work. In the future Nimsi plans to pursue a career in digital animation

Leonardo Castano is a Computer Arts major. Originally from Colombia, Leonardo has always enjoyed drawing and painting, but since attending HCCC, he has expanded his media to incorporate a variety of digital media. He is especially interested in the developing field of 3-D animation.

Caitlyn Cooper is a Computer Arts major. As a native New Jerseyan, Caitlyn has had a lifelong interest in art. Caitlyn loves working in three dimensions in both traditional and digital media. After graduation from HCCC, Caitlyn looks forward to transferring to a four-year institution to pursue a degree in digital art.

Sara Elashkar is a Computer Arts major. Originally from Egypt, Sara arrived in the United States in 2019. Sara loves to work in various digital media such as Illustrator, After Effects, Adobe Animation, and Photoshop. In the future, Sara plans to attend a four-year institution and major in Graphic Design.

Steven Jackson is a Computer Arts major. Originally from New York City, Steven is a multi-media artist whose work is based on life experiences and emotions. Steven is a storyteller and character designer and hopes to leave a legacy of inspiration and independence.

Josh Greenbaum is a Studio Arts major at HCCC and the Art Club President. As club president, he organized various art opportunities for the HCCC student community. Josh enjoys working collaboratively and loves to experiment with new materials.

Tyler Hamby is a Computer Arts major. Tyler enjoys working in both traditional and digital media and is interested in exploring the genre of “horror art” in comics and film. He hopes to eventually pursue a career as a game designer or graphic designer.

Matthew Hohmann is a Studio Arts major at HCCC. Matthew has loved making art his entire life. He enjoys working in both traditional and digital media. In the future, Matthew plans to pursue a B.F.A. in studio art.

Leo de Paula is a Computer Arts major. Leo was born in Brazil and came to the United States in 2021 to pursue his education. His multi-disciplinary work includes photography, fine art, and digital art. Leo wants his work to uplift the Latin community. After graduation, Leo plans to transfer to a four-year institution to continue his education in a B.F.A. program in graphic design.

Kenneth Maldonado is an alumnus of the HCCC Studio Arts program. He is currently enrolled at NJCU as a graphic design major. Kenneth enjoys drawing, sketching, and painting in his free time.

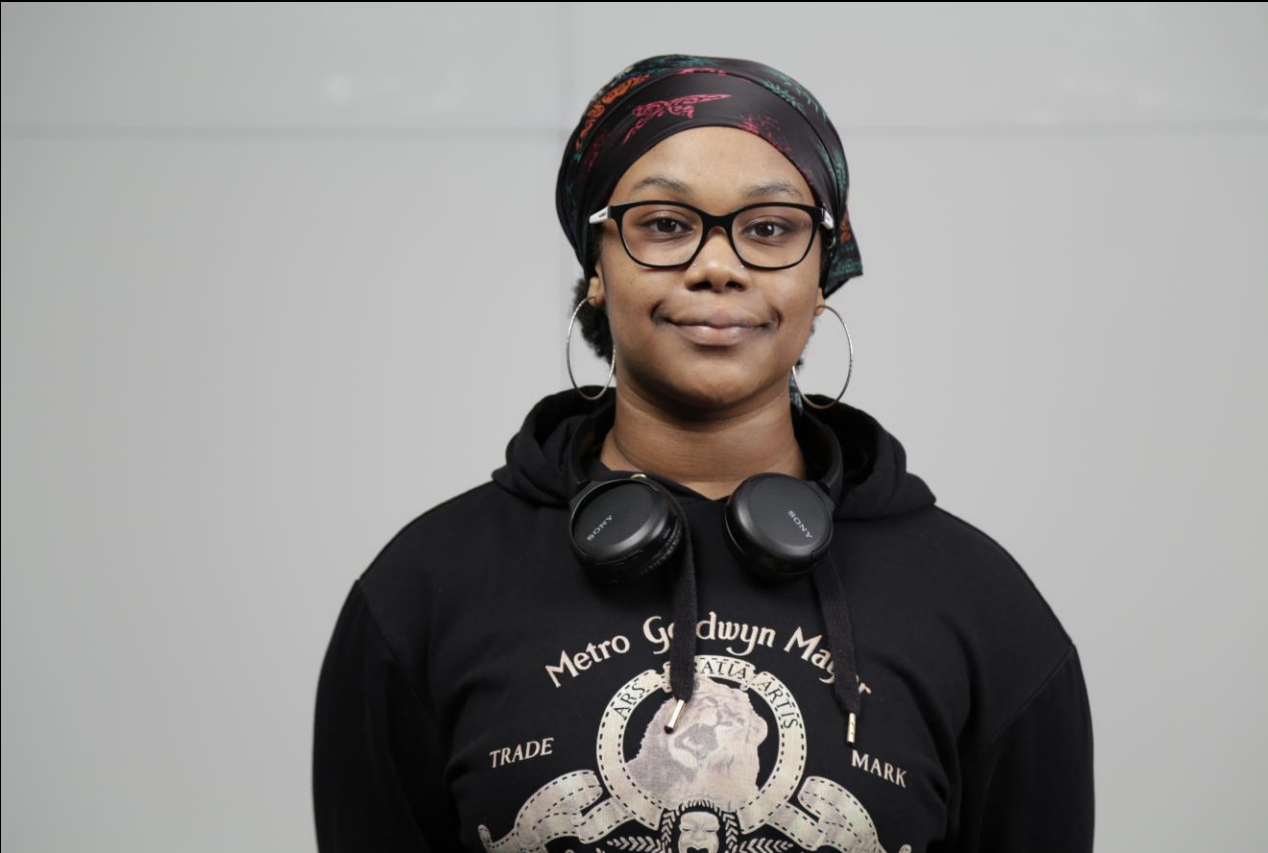

Jose Perez is a Computer Arts major. Jose only recently discovered his love for the arts. While he is currently focused on video making and editing, Jose deeply respects traditional and new media. Jose is interested in figurative and landscape works.

Victor-Jose Rodriguez is a Studio Arts Major at HCCC. He enjoys working in drawing media because it allows for flexibility in his image-making. Victor plans to pursue a B.F.A. in the future.

Bryan Rosas is a Studio Arts major and an aspiring comic book artist. Bryan is interested in the narrative aspects of illustration and hopes one day to work to create intellectual property. In his free time, Bryan enjoys creating dioramas.

Jelani Scriven is a Studio Arts major. Jelani is an interdisciplinary artist. She has loved art, and her family nurtured her creativity from an early age. Her artwork is inspired by intense emotional experiences that are conveyed in a variety of media. Jelani wants to continue her education in art therapy, eventually attaining her master's degree.

JC Scull is a Computer Arts major. JC loves to work in traditional and digital media but is especially interested in 3-dimensional design and animation. JC plans to continue his education at a four-year institution and eventually obtain a master's degree in computer animation. JC plans to pursue a career in animation and cause trouble along the way.

Margie Tabora is a Computer Arts major. Margie is a mixed-media artist. She enjoys working in both traditional and digital media. After graduation from HCCC, Margie hopes to continue her education at a four-year institution and eventually start her design studio.

Domenica Velez is a Computer Arts major. Originally from Ecuador, Domenica came to the United States in 2021 to pursue her studies. Domenica enjoys working in both traditional and digital media. She especially enjoys developing video game design and animation. Domenica plans to transfer to a four-year institution to pursue her game design and animation studies.

Anthony Vivar is a Computer Arts major. Although reserved and quiet, Anthony loves to express himself through his art. He is interested in street art and comic book art. Anthony is currently working on a series of works that feature a variety of characters Anthony has developed. In the future, Anthony plans to pursue a career in graphic design.

Ange-Kenny Yapo is a Computer Arts major. Ange-Kenny arrived in the United States from the Ivory Coast in 2020 to pursue his studies. After graduation from HCCC, Ange-Kenny plans to pursue his studies at Rutgers University in the fall of 2024.